Dear Taxpayer:

Thank you for your inquiry of Aug. 24, 2009.

There have been a number of CP 207/207L and CP 276A notices issued in error, for paper Form 941 returns, due to systemic processing errors at our Submission Processing facilities. The Form 941 Record of Federal Tax Liability (ROFTL) or Schedule B information has not always been scanned correctly during return processing.

Erroneously making it appear that the Form 941 (ROFTL) or Schedule B was not attached to the Form 941 and resulting in the generation of these incorrect CP notices. A programming fix has been instituted for the system problem, but has not yet been completed. Also please check the irs.gov web site for future updates.
